
ABA Tutor Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a position as an ABA Tutor where my tutoring skills will continue to develop.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in tutoring children with developmental disabilities
 - Deep knowledge of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) principles and techniques
 - Profound knowledge of coaching techniques
 - Familiarity with various treatment methodologies for autism
 - Skilled in preparing children's treatment reports
 - Ability to teach developmental skills to children with autism and special needs
 - Ability to interact effectively with parents and other school staffs
 - Ability to provide feedback regarding children's progress to parents
-

Professional Experience:

ABA Tutor

Beaumont Hospitals, Chrisman, IL

August 2007 – Present

- Monitored and measured children's behavior in real-life environments.
- Developed behavioral plan and observed child's response to the plan.
- Modified behavioral plan as per child's progress.
- Updated service summary form with all treatment service activities.
- Informed parents on various methods about educating children during family activities.
- Reported critical incidents regarding children to management.
- Implemented ABA principles according to children's developmental delays.

ABA Tutor

Maxim Healthcare Services, Chrisman, IL

May 2004 – July 2007

- Maintained behavioral intervention plans.
 - Developed and updated curriculum materials.
 - Worked with Manager in psychotherapy sessions.
 - Monitored children's behavior and plotted behavioral graphs.
 - Prepared and reviewed daily treatment notes with parents.
 - Maintained work area clean and safe.
 - Conducted trainings to ABA students.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Applied Behavior Analysis

Black Hawk College, Moline, IL

Build your Resume Now