
Access Database Developer Resume

Job Objective

Looking for an opportunity to work as Access Database Developer for a reputed organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong accomplished experience in creating and managing MS Access databases
 - Proficient in Microsoft technologies, VB, and SQL development
 - Thorough knowledge of Relational Databases and Visual Basic with Applications
 - Excellent time management, problem solving and analytical skills
 - Outstanding ability to develop and maintain strong cross-functional relationships
 - Uncommon ability to work with end users to translate user 'end needs' into working requirements for data needs
 - Amazing ability to manage multiple projects to completion, on time, and within budget
-

Professional Experience:

Access Database Developer

Lords, Inc., Nashville, TN

July 2006 – Present

- Reviewed database design and participated in change control board meetings.
- Updated and maintained databases.
- Imported data from existing Excel spreadsheets into MS Access 2007.
- Configured ODBC drivers to connect to configuration management tool.
- Enhanced and created database front-end entry screen.

Access Database Developer

Crampton Corporation, Nashville, TN

May 2002 – June 2006

- Managed and created project work plans, updated schedules and reported progress against plans.
 - Accomplished client expectations and resource requirements for projects.
 - Scheduled, coordinated and implemented projects across multiple groups.
 - Ensured timely project delivery for small to medium Access Db projects and assignments.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science

Lindsey Wilson College, Kentucky, KY

Build your Resume Now