

---

Accessory Designer Resume

---

Job Objective

Seeking a creative and challenging role as an Accessory Designer in a leading company.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- In-depth knowledge of bag, shoe and accessory production process and techniques
  - Familiarity with accessory trends and Computer Aided Designs
  - Good understanding on the manufacturing and production industry
  - Ability to produce low-budget designs without compromising quality
-

Professional Experience:

---

Accessory Designer
Nippon, Inc., Brookfield, WI
April 2006 – Present

- Created and executed original design concepts.
- Performed market research to keep accessory program inline with market demand and brand direction.
- Managed work flow from design through initial samples to production ready goods.
- Adhered to merchandise assortment and price point guidelines.
- Identified design direction, assortment opportunities and merchandise trends.

Accessory Designer
Mono Corporation, Brookfield, WI
June 2002 – March 2006

- Conceptualized, developed, and created designs for assorted accessories.
  - Participated in design-related process.
  - Provided technical specifications for production.
  - Managed all 3rd party testing of raw materials.
  - Assisted in the sourcing of materials.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Fashion Design
Indiana Institute of Technology, Indiana, IN

Build your Resume Now