
Addiction Counselor Resume

Job Objective

Looking for the career as an Addiction Counselor that allows me to utilize my knowledge in innovative and best possible ways.

Work Experience:

- Addiction Counselor, 2006 to Present
 - Spectrum Healthcare Resources, Saint Louis, MO
 - Assisted clients to identify and overcome addictive behaviors.
 - Applied individual behavior modification plans.
 - Modified destructive behaviors and instructed new coping skills.
 - Advised individually and in group therapy sessions to promote healthy lifestyles.
 - Assisted clients refrain from addiction to substances and behaviors such as gambling, alcohol and drugs.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Wide knowledge of drug, alcohol and eating disorders.
 - Sound knowledge of psychosocial functioning.
 - Immense ability assist people to overcome debilitating.
 - Extended ability to counsel people about destructive addictions such as alcohol addictions and substance abuse.
 - Profound ability to detect the source of the patients' problems and reasons for the disease.
-

Education:

B.S. in Psychology, 2004, Auburn University
Addiction Counselor Certification, 2006, Hope International University

Build your Resume Now