

---

ADMIRALTY LAWYER RESUME

---

Summary:

---

A highly motivated professional who has handled legal practice for more than 15 years in admiralty and maritime representations, personal injuries, labor and employment issues; has extensive trial experience garnered from previous cases involving various areas such as immigration, citizenships, wrongful death verdicts and unresolved death cases, business litigations, as well as maritime law; has great perseverance and is always on top of things; does things with passion and has very good research and investigative skills essential in pulling off a successful case; has advocated views of different groups and individuals of different representations within the context of the legal system.

---

Professional Experience:

---

Attorney General October 2007 – Present
Jackson Law Office, Jacksonville, FL

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Specialized practice at areas of general admiralty and maritime representation, immigration and nationality law.
- Represented a wide range of individuals and commercial clients in the maritime, trucking and immigration fields.
- Represented various clients in a wide range of cases, including collision, personal injury, pollution claims, cargo damage, dock damage, immigration, legislation and waterfront development.
- Counseled specializing in workers' compensation.
- Provided litigation support and handled trial preparation including claimants/expert witness deposition, defense experts hiring, settlement conferences and mediations, negotiation settlements, direct contact establishment with clients and employers.
- Obtained Social Security Disability for clients.

Assistant Attorney General June 2003 – August 2007
TMC & Co Law Firm, Birmingham AL

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Assisted in the representation of foreign workers, foreign investors in the United States.
- Lead counsel on all court trials, proposed awards/briefs, presented exhibits, prepared direct/cross examinations at hearings and prepared closing arguments.
- Handled cross examinations and questioning, did presentations of exhibits at hearings.
- Did extensive research and interviews with suspects and complainants, to gauge and create substantial records and findings to support arguments.
- Documented and filed interviews and collated other essential documentations found.

Intern February 2000 – May 2003
Adamson Group, Michigan

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Specialized practice at areas of general admiralty and maritime representation, immigration and nationality law.
- Represented a wide range of individuals and commercial clients in the maritime, trucking and immigration fields.
- Represented various clients in a wide range of cases, including collision, personal injury, pollution claims, cargo damage, dock damage, immigration, legislation and waterfront development.
- Counseled specializing in workers' compensation.
- Provided litigation support and handled trial preparation including claimants/expert witness deposition, defense experts hiring, settlement conferences and mediations, negotiation settlements, direct contact establishment with clients and employers.
- Obtained Social Security Disability for clients.

Assistant Attorney General June 2003 – August 2007
TMC & Co Law Firm, Birmingham AL

---

Education:

---

Master's in Sociology, Immigration Services
Princeton University, NJ, 2000
Bachelor of Science in Sociology, Major in Cultural Diversity
Princeton University, NJ, 1997

---

Skills/Certifications:

---

- Extensive general litigation experience in both federal and state courts covering a wide range of commercial, regulatory and personal injury matters
- Listening skills
- Analysis, synthesis and digestion of information based on relevance
- Advocacy, counseling and recommendation skills
- Excellent oral and written communication skills

---

Associations/Organizations:

---

American Immigration Lawyers Association, Member
Baltimore Port Alliance, Member

Build your Resume Now