

---

Air Quality Engineer Resume

---

Job Objective

---

Seeking an Air Quality Engineer position that enables me to utilize my skills within the field to make a positive contribution to the company.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Extensive experience in consulting and industry as well as in environmental engineering and air permitting
  - Steep knowledge of New Source Review and project management, electronic databases, marketing, proposal writing and client meetings
  - Huge knowledge of federal and state air quality and permitting regulations
  - Solid understanding of air emissions, emission reporting processes and air modeling
  - Proficient in client management and development
  - Remarkable ability to tour and scrutinize air pollution control equipment
  - Superior skills in Project Management, Technical Writing, Process Engineering and Air Modeling
  - Sound computer skills
-

Work Experience:

---

Air Quality Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Dow Corning Corporation, Appleton, WI

- Advanced air quality permits and assisted local regulators as well as conducted air quality evaluation.
- Checked air pollution control paraphernalia.
- Monitored air pollutant emissions and impacts and enforced environmental compliance management systems.
- Formulated results and carried out environmental compliance audits.
- Delegated to maintain profitable relations with the clients.

Air Quality Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Apex Companies, LLC, Appleton, WI

- Managed air permitting projects and suggested industrial development as well as promoted business development for air permitting work.
  - Supervised projects and handled team development, technical review and coached junior staff.
  - Advanced technical approach, regulated selection of technical tools and directed project team.
  - Handled air permitting and modeling for industrial and governmental clients.
  - Corresponded with site development teams.
-

Education:

---

B.S in Environmental Engineering, Eureka College, Eureka, IL

Build your Resume Now