
Aircraft Armament Systems Apprentice Resume

Job Objective

Enthusiastic Aircraft Armament Systems Apprentice looking for position with reputable organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive knowledge of Aircraft Armament Systems
 - Sound knowledge of test and repair the aircraft weapons system
 - Good problem solving and analytical skills
 - Ability to load bombs and missiles onto the aircraft
 - Ability to prioritize work tasks, multi-task, and maintain focus
-

Professional Experience:

Aircraft Armament Systems Apprentice
Army National Guard, Milledgeville, GA
August 2005 – Present

- Inspected and loaded various air munitions air-to-air and air-to-ground missiles, rockets and chaff and flares.
- Maintained and operated electrical generators and bomb lift trucks.
- Operated test equipment and gauges and checked fixtures to ensure reliability and readiness of equipment.
- Repaired test equipment and checked fixture.
- Repaired broken wiring, connectors and electrical components.

Aircraft Armament Systems Apprentice
US Air Force, Milledgeville, GA
May 2000 – July 2005

- Inspected and tested weapons release components.
 - Disassembled and repaired guns and gun systems.
 - Participated in the test and evaluation of new and prototype weapons and weapons systems.
 - Maintained weapons systems and gun.
 - Ensured reliability and readiness of equipment to use.
 - Assisted in repairing specialized aircraft.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Aircraft Armament Systems Technology
Napa Valley College, Napa, CA

Build your Resume Now