
Aircraft Engine Mechanic Resume

Job Objective

To secure a position as an Aircraft Engine Mechanic for your firm.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable maintenance and repair experience with aircraft mechanical systems
 - Profound knowledge of jet engine theory and the integration of the jet engine to other aircrafts systems and repair of the same
 - Ability to make prescribed modifications to the aircraft engines, engine assemblies and accessories
 - Skilled at performing, cable rigging of flight and engine controls
 - Familiarity with hydraulic, oil, fuel, pressurization systems and landing gear assemblies
 - Ability to interpret technical orders, manufacturer's catalogue, blueprints and the schematic
-

Professional Experience:

Aircraft Engine Mechanic, August 2005 – Present

Air Force Materiel Command, Lee S Summit, MO

- Maintained aircraft components for cleanliness, alignment, clearance, wear and tear according to the technical orders.
- Regulated the functional checks of aircraft systems such as pneudralic, electric, environmental, lubrication, anti icinganti- icing, power plant, oxygen, fuel, vacuum, induction and exhaust.
- Installed equipment to the aircraft such as launchers, external parts and auxiliary parts.
- Maintained aircrafts by identifying corrosion and using protective measures.
- Operated the aircraft and performed engine removal, installation and run up.
- Maintained the non powered aerospace ground equipment and obtained engine oil samples for analysis.

Aircraft Engine Mechanic, May 2000 – July 2005

Air Force, Air National Guard Units, Lee S Summit, MO

- Performed repairs and disassembled them along with its components and modules.
 - Repaired and replaced the models in accordance with the manufacturers and the DAI quality procedure.
 - Determined the engine components with calibrated precision measuring the equipment to repair or service it.
 - Regulated quality checks on turbine engine components using non destructive inspection method such as fluorescent penetrate and magnetic particle machinery.
 - Researched the FAA Airworthiness Directives and prepared logs in accordance with it, recorded engine logs for the current engine times and cycles.
 - Studied the current technical data and carried all inspections and repairs accordingly.
-

Education:

High School Diploma, Beacon Therapeutic School, Calument Park, IL

Build your Resume Now