
Aircraft Structural Repair Resume

Job Objective

Aircraft Structural Repair at a small, dependable agency.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide knowledge of aircraft sheet metal repairs
 - Familiarity with machines and tools – designs, uses, benefits, repair and maintenance
 - In-depth knowledge of military specifications, standards and technical manuals
 - Ability to use precision technical plans, blueprints, drawings and models
 - Ability to be deployed to various locations in support of mission requirements as required
 - Ability to perform repair, modification, and corrosion protection treatment
 - Ability to identify, remove, and treat corrosion using mechanical and chemical procedures
-

Professional Experience:

Aircraft Structural Repair
U.S. Army Recruiting, New Brunswick, NJ
August 2008 – Present

- Fabricated structural parts.
- Operated precision measuring gages and alignment fixtures.
- Balanced fixed-wing aircraft controls such as flaps and ailerons.
- Mixed and applied primers and paints to aircraft surfaces.
- Applied corrosion control treatment to aircraft metals.
- Maintained facilities for storage of flammable and hazardous materials.

Aircraft Structural Repair
ARINC Technical Services, LLC, New Brunswick, NJ
May 2006 – July 2008

- Fabricated, installed and maintained sheet-metal components.
 - Assisted in rigging flight control systems.
 - Repaired discrepancies.
 - Performed scheduled and unscheduled maintenance and inspections.
 - Performed TD's, IRAC's, Service Bulletins and other technical changes necessary.
-

Education:

High School Diploma
Nondalton School, Nondalton, AK

Build your Resume Now