

---

Airframe Mechanic Resume

---

Job Objective

To seek employment as an Airframe Mechanic in my desired field.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Strong experience with repairing, fabricating and installing aircraft parts
  - Sound knowledge of fighter aircraft engines such as F100-200E, F100-229 and F100-119
  - Profound knowledge of aircraft unique tools – test equipment, torque wrenches, dial indicators, micrometers and T/M/S specific IMRL equipment
  - Familiarity with aircraft ground handling and common maintenance practices
  - Ability to complete military and FFA related maintenance forms, workbooks and service logs
  - Ability to interpret equipment safety regulations, maintenance manuals, service bulletins, blueprints, diagrams and schematics
-

Work Experience:

---

Airframe Mechanic, August 2005 – Present
Aerotek Aviation, Newport News, VA

- Maintained close tolerance dimensions and varied types of fasteners using pneudralic tools, special instruments and hand tools.
- Maintained fuel tank or cell, repaired engine cowling and flight control surfaces.
- Modified and repaired organizational, intermediate and depot level structures, installation of aircraft modification kits.
- Studied engineering drawings, , military specifications, standards, safety procedures and maintenance manuals for tasks assigned.
- Maintained documents on the work performed on aircraft forms, updated the Contract Field Team workbooks.

Airframe Mechanic, May 2000 – July 2005
Piedmont Airlines, Inc., Newport News, VA

- Engineered the lay out, forms, shapes, cuts, bends, fits, reams, installed fasteners, drills and assembled the airframe structure and the sheet metal parts.
  - Maintained the aircraft records, forms and workbooks.
  - Installed and maintained, actuating cylinders, cable controls, hydraulic tubing and complete fuel systems along with self sealing fuel cells.
  - Specialized in aircraft weight and balance, checking cockpit pressure and maintaining the defogging systems.
  - Repaired engine cowling and flight control surfaces.
-

Education:

---

High School Diploma, Englewood High School, Englewood, CO

Build your Resume Now