ALFRESCO DEVELOPER RESUME

Rebecca Gholston
1313 Harron Drive
Annapolis, MD 21401
(111) 683-2295
Email : [email]

Career Goal:

Seeking the position of an Alfresco Developer to further hone my skills in Java, J2EE, XML, XSLT and Hibernate and contribute to organizational effectiveness.

Technical Skills:

In depth knowledge of designing solutions utilizing Alfresco:

- Object Model
- Taxonomy
- Security Model

Thorough with Java technologies:

- J2EE, JSP, Servlets
- Spring Framework
- JSON, Jquery

Adept in utilizing web application servers:

- IBM Webphere
- BEA Weblogic
- Apache, Tomcat

Highly skillful in utilizing IDEs:

- Eclipse
- Source version control

Solid understanding of database administration:

- MySQL
- Oracle
- Postgres

Quick and brilliant in using multiple frameworks:

- Struts, IBatis
- JBoss Seam
- Alfresco 3.3

Superb in implementing solutions utilizing other tools:

- Selenium, iReport
- TestNG
- Jasper report

Wide range of capabilities to:

- Create and execute effective SAAS solutions
- Maintain and support enterprise scale Java Projects

Relevant Experience:

Alfresco Developer
Isos Technology
January 2012 – Present
Annapolis, MD

- Conducted analysis of user requirements for definition and development of technical solutions.
- Implemented procedures for mapping of requirements to JEE configuration and customization options.
- Assisted in designing and architecture components of new applications and related upgrades.
- Participated in all phases of application development lifecycle including coding, testing and deployment.
- Provided technical assistance for designing and development of customized SaaS solutions.
- Executed effective processes for designing of components and object oriented applications.
- Supported technical team members in formulation of systematic approaches for application integration.

- Suggested improvements for websites, web applications and infrastructure components to support new and current applications.

Alfresco Developer
Microturn Systems Inc
November 2010 – January 2012
Herndon, VA

- Implemented procedures for addition of customer meta data and property to Alfresco Share applications.
- Participated in all phases of project development lifecycle including requirements analysis and implementation.
- Coordinated with clients for designing and development of effective Alfresco solutions.
- Assisted in implementation of custom dash lets for contact lists and tags cloud applications.
- Provided technical assistance for implementation of custom actions, email and site imports for Alfresco Share applications.
- Executed effective processes for addition of filtering for various users and file types.
- Supported technical team members in review of requirements for Alfresco solutions.
- Suggested procedures for implementation of custom page for report dashboards such as user access history.

Educational Background:

Bachelor's Degree in Software Engineering
Horry-Georgetown Technical College
August 2006 – May 2010
Conway, SC

Professional Certification:

Alfresco Certified Engineer (ACE)July 2010

Build your Resume Now