

---

AMBASSADOR RESUME

---

Summary:

---

A credible and well respected dignitary who has worked as a representative in the United Nations for more than 10 years; the experience has developed his skills at resolving complex issues, representing a country as a liaison for international matters and giving assistance to the United States citizens; dedicates his time and passion to his work; possesses excellent time management, negotiation and strategic skills; has a wide range of contacts in all departments of the UN and is capable of coming up with the most sound and timely decision for situations requiring utmost and the most immediate attention.

---

Professional Experience:

---

Ambassador August 2004 – Present
United Nations, New York, NY

---

Responsibilities:

---

Established mission statements and developed resolving issues through his agreements with the United Nations' network of colleagues.

Resolved issues particularly in the committees and meetings involving security and legal issues.

Involved in the developments of the UN and set up new resolutions to current UN issues which required assistance.

Secured resolutions in cooperation with the United Nations in effort to establish assistance requirements for the country.

Opened conversations with the United Nations and delivered negotiations with the joining states.

Ambassador Representative June 1999 – August 2004

United Nations, New York, NY

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Established mission statements and developed resolving issues through his agreements with the United Nations' network of colleagues.
- Resolved issues particularly in the committees and meetings involving security and legal issues.
- Involved in the developments of the UN and set up new resolutions to current UN issues which required assistance.
- Secured resolutions in cooperation with the United Nations in effort to establish assistance requirements for the country.
- Opened conversations with the United Nations and delivered negotiations with the joining states.

Ambassador Representative June 1999 – August 2004

United Nations, New York, NY

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Established mission statements and developed resolving issues through his agreements with the United Nations' network of colleagues.
- Resolved issues particularly in the committees and meetings involving security and legal issues.
- Involved in the developments of the UN and set up new resolutions to current UN issues which required assistance.
- Secured resolutions in cooperation with the United Nations in effort to establish assistance requirements for the country.
- Opened conversations with the United Nations and delivered negotiations with the joining states.

Ambassador Representative June 1999 – August 2004

United Nations, New York, NY

---

Education:

---

Masters Degree in Economics

University of Arizona, 1995

Bachelor of Science in Political Science

University of Arizona, 1993

---

Skills/Certifications:

---

- Energetic, motivated and results-oriented
- Knowledge and excellence in the practice and application of international public service
- Excellent leadership, negotiation and settlement, diplomatic skills
- Skills in giving resolutions to developmental issues

- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Intelligent, dynamic, empathic and passionate in helping people

---

Associations/Organizations:

---

Institute of International Relations, Vice President, Present
American Law Association, Secretary General, Present

Build your Resume Now