
Ambulance Operator Resume

Job Objective

To obtain an Ambulance Operator position in a company that provides an open environment with many opportunities for continuous growth.

Summary of Qualifications:

Profound knowledge of Lifeguard EMS policies and procedures
Extensive knowledge of statistics, computer use and research methodology
Excellent ability to identify and address the special needs of adult, geriatric, adolescent and paediatric, neonatal patients
Remarkable ability to provide direct care under the supervision of the transport RN
Amazing ability to work under stress caused by emergencies, danger, and criticism
Certified NREMT professional with valid driving license and clean driving record
Ability to work well in a diverse team environment

Work Experience:

Ambulance Operator, May 2004 – Present

Quality Drive-Away, Cerritos, CA
Handled emergency medical calls for service including accidents and other emergencies.

Operated an emergency vehicle to and from the scene of emergency, assisted paramedics and other emergency medical personnel in providing emergency medical and health care.

Monitored and maintained communications equipment to contact with dispatchers.

Provided emergency medical care to the ill and injured within the scope of an Emergency Medical Technician.

Transported patients to hospitals or other emergency care facilities.

Assisted to obtain and record patients' vital statistics and circumstances of emergency.

Prepared billing and record keeping reports. Ambulance Operator, March 2002– April 2004

Stanley Associates, Cerritos, CA
Provided basic medical care and transport of the ill and injured as an Emergency Medical Technician-1.

Handled emergency medical calls and provided basic life support services.

Operated an emergency vehicle to and from the scene of an emergency.

Monitored a radio and operated communication equipment.

Transported patients to hospital emergency rooms.

Ensured safe and legal operation of the ambulance for paediatric transport.

Assisted in all loading and unloading of neonatal and paediatric patients and equipment.

Education:

High School Diploma, Altavista High School, Altavista, VA

Build your Resume Now