
Anatomy Professor Resume

Job Objective

Anatomy Professor with excellent teaching and research abilities seeking employment in your college.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in teaching anatomy courses
 - Profound knowledge of medical imaging methodologies
 - Sound knowledge of instructional techniques
 - Wide knowledge of curriculum design, development, and delivery
 - Familiarity with medical research operations
 - Good understanding of anatomical sciences and effective digital anatomy resources
 - Proficient with medical imaging methods and image processing
 - Ability to prepare course content
 - Ability to revise anatomy curriculum to optimize student learning
 - Ability to maintain positive working relationships with students
-

Professional Experience:

Anatomy Professor
Grand Valley State University, Hebron, IN August 2007 – Present

- Delivered anatomy courses as per approved curriculum.
- Facilitated online classes as per e-learning policy manual.
- Maintained student attendance and grade reports.
- Provided support in curriculum development and textbook selection activities.
- Recommended improvements to current instructional methodologies.
- Participated in campus meetings and educational committees.
- Assisted in resolving academic issues promptly.
- Adhered to academic policies at all times.

Anatomy Professor
Edison State College, Hebron, IN
May 2004 – July 2007

- Provided assignments and homework for students.
 - Conducted and graded student examinations.
 - Revised course materials as needed.
 - Attended professional conferences and workshops.
 - Facilitated classroom discussions on anatomical science.
 - Assisted in research activities and maintained records of findings.
 - Prepared anatomy papers for journals and publications.
 - Addressed research and teaching issues.
-

Education:

PhD in Anatomy
James Madison University, Harrisonburg, VA
Master's Degree in Anatomy
Santa Fe College, Gainesville, FL

Build your Resume Now