
Apparel Product Manager Resume

Job Objective

Respected Associate Product Manager – Men's Apparel seeks position where my skills would be used for the betterment of the company and its employees.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Experience in managing and directing catalogs for apparel industry and administering development process
 - Huge knowledge of apparel construction and its properties
 - Deep knowledge of silhouettes and fabrics
 - Remarkable ability to adapt to new technologies
 - Exceptional ability to conceptualize various designs
 - Outstanding Microsoft application skills
 - Amazing communication skills in both oral and written forms
 - Proficient in designing new concepts
 - Familiarity in using basic math in designs
-

Professional Experience:

Associate Product Manager – Men's Apparel

Stryker, Seattle, WA

October 2008 – Present

- Maintained knowledge on all company products and answered all queries for same.
- Coordinated with vendors and managed deliveries and approvals for all garments.
- Managed line assortment lists and prepared log for sample photos.
- Monitored merchandise database and updated information as required on a regular basis.
- Assisted inventory and designing team, provided information required for production cycle of product.
- Observed and tracked photo samples and ensured accuracy of samples to catalog photo shoot dates.
- Collaborated with vendors and generated production information sheets on a regular basis to maintain continuity.
- Managed all paperwork for vendors and ensured completion of same.

Apparel Product Developer

SanMar, Seattle, WA

August 2003-September 2008

- Coordinated with merchandising and retail teams and identified areas of improvement and prepared plans accordingly.
- Managed product marketing and collected all merchandising boards and samples.
- Assisted vendors and developed price for various materials.
- Administered all activities of vendors, approved fabrics and trims.
- Analyzed photos and coordinated with any development issues.
- Prepared purchase orders and ensured accuracy in data.

Apparel Designer

Fossil Inc., Seattle, WA

May 1998- July 2003

- Administered product designs and performed market research and designs for products.
 - Performed research on global markets and monitored new trends and techniques.
 - Participated in development of product lines and conceptualizing products.
 - Evaluated product and ensured compliance to market trends.
 - Coordinated with technical designer and prepared product packages and ensured accuracy.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Business

Morgan State University, Baltimore, MD

Build your Resume Now