
Apple Developer Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a responsible and challenging Apple Developer's position where my education and work experience will have valuable application.

Work Experience:

Apple Developer, July 2006 – Present
Amtec Engineering, Loyola Beach, TX

- Implemented and maintained the software applications using a variety of tools and solutions.
- Involved in developing estimates for the project.
- Reported project status to team leader.
- Interacted with Team Leader to identify deficiencies and conflicts in design.

Apple Developer, May 2002 – June 2006
Amtex Systems, Loyola Beach, TX

- Acted as second level of support for production systems users.
 - Shared knowledge with other developers.
 - Performed training sessions for end users.
 - Followed up full software development cycle.
 - Worked effectively with individuals and teams, clients and staff.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Profound knowledge of Unified Modeling Language (UML)
 - Hands-on Software development experience with Apple SDK 3.x mainly focusing on iPhone OS and Cocoa touch framework
 - Proficient with XML, Java Servlets, JSP, HTTP, HTML, SQL and Tomcat server
 - In-depth knowledge of design patterns
 - Excellent awareness of the software lifecycle
 - Exceptional ability to design and evaluate different solutions for and identical business case
 - Immense ability to work on sophisticated architecture level cases
-

Education:

Bachelor degrees in Computer Science, Dixie State College, Utah, UT

Build your Resume Now