

---

Applications Specialist Resume

---

Job Objective

Applications Specialist seeking employment with the right company in order to use my experience and skills to better the company.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Remarkable experience in collaborations and applications of next-generation instruments
  - Proficient in library constructions and operation of robotic liquid handling equipment
  - Hands on experience in development of training materials and technical documentation
  - Sound knowledge of writing application notes and scientific publications
  - Profound ability to balance multiple projects and customers concurrently
  - Excellent experimental design, presentation and trouble-shooting skills
  - Good interpersonal and verbal and written communication skills
-

Work Experience:

---

Applications Specialist, May 2006 – Present
Pall Corporation, Las Vegas, NV

- Administered process development and optimization.
- Utilized automated filtration and chromatography systems related to DFF and chromatography.
- Performed on site and in-house bench scale testing, data analysis and reports.
- Generated Product Occurrence Report (POR) and ensured resolution and closure of the POR.
- Managed to analyze data and present the report to the customer.
- Maintained weekly to bi-weekly visits with management to review progress and activities.

Applications Specialist, March 2003 – April 2006
Aperio Technologies, Las Vegas, NV

- Provided post-sales support in the field and in-house, including remote presentations.
  - Performed ongoing account management duties for assigned accounts.
  - Participated in project management for key accounts.
  - Assisted with training and deployment of new software releases.
  - Participated in writing support materials for customers.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Histology, Antonelli College, Cincinnati, OH

Build your Resume Now