
Architectural Paint Chemist Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a job as Architectural Paint Chemist and perform my duties with full dedication.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Substantial experience in lab formulation and paint chemistry
 - Wide knowledge of color dispersions and VAE copolymers
 - Good knowledge of commercialization procedures and resin systems
 - Solid understanding of ERP software for process manufacturing
 - Immense ability to review paint formulations
 - Extreme ability to understand batch formulations
-

Professional Experience:

Architectural Paint Chemist
DecoArt, Inc., Boston, MA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Assisted in understanding of materials and product lines.
- Created paint samples and modified product batch formulations.
- Developed production formulas and documented testing results.
- Prepared project lab books and generated detailing tests.
- Maintained communications with raw material suppliers.
- Reviewed new raw materials for existing formulations.

Architectural Paint Chemist
CPS, Inc., Boston, MA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Maintained technical equipments during all project stages.
 - Provided information regarding budgets and resources to project development staff.
 - Designed and developed product comparisons for all marketing products.
 - Prepared and updated product data sheets.
 - Maintained company paints for sales and marketing personnel.
 - Assisted in verification of quality assurance data for components.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Chemical Engineering
Chatfield College, Saint Martin, OH

Build your Resume Now