
Assistant Environmental Chemist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking to work as Assistant Environmental Chemist for the right company where I can provide excellent service to the customers.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in environmental chemistry laboratory
 - Profound knowledge of air pollution chemistry and techniques
 - Panoramic knowledge of atomic absorption spectrometry
 - Thorough understanding of gas chromatography and instrumentation
 - Technical ability to conduct statistical analysis
 - Immense ability to use spiked and duplicate samples
-

Professional Experience:

Assistant Environmental Chemist
MRIGlobal, Chicago, IL
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Conducted environmental chemistry analysis for air pollution samples.
- Maintained environmental materials with designated references.
- Analyzed and managed nitrogen dioxide and particulate metals.
- Participated in analysis of QA reference samples.
- Monitored examination results as per quality standards.
- Generated monthly reports by collection of statistical data.

Assistant Environmental Chemist
CBC, Inc., Chicago, IL
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Managed instrumentation and devices with cleanliness measures.
 - Generated reports containing examination findings.
 - Provided report assistance to federal and local government officials.
 - Created analytical samples using chemical methods.
 - Supported quality control and prepared chemical reagents.
 - Developed standard curves with specific reference standards.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Natural Science
Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, PA

Build your Resume Now