
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR CV

When writing a CV of an Assistant Professor, it is ideal if you present first information that will give the reader the impression that you indeed have what it takes to excel in the job. The key is to showcase all your teaching and research experience to increase your credibility. Highlight your skills and experience in managing research projects as well as your contributions in the improvement of the academia you are affiliated with. Present all professional experience by starting from the most recent then down to your first teaching experience. A sample Assistant Professor CV is presented below for your perusal.

Derek Buchanan

P.O. Box 585, 5390 Ultrices, St. Balfour Orkney ET2H 3TDZIP1

Tel: 01389 270485 Email: [email]

Date of Birth: September 22nd, 1991

PERSONAL PROFILE:

My primary goal is to put forth a strong contribution in education and research to the institution especially within my field of expertise. Having been an Assistant Professor in two institutions, I have involved myself with various research projects as well as teaching undergraduate and postgraduate students across many platforms. One of my objectives is to partake in the pedagogical success of an institution by putting my best efforts into helping students achieve their best academic performance. As an Assistant Professor, I aim for continuous learning and development of my teaching capabilities. With this being said, I am confident that all these objectives can be achieved.

EDUCATION:

BSc (Hons) in Psychology
St Andrews University – St Andrews
October 2009 to July 2012

A-levels: Psychology, English Language, Health and Social Care
Wakefield College – Wakefield
September 2007 to July 2009

GCSEs: Psychology, English Language, Health and Social Care
Godolphin and Latymer School – Hammersmith
September 2002 to July 2007

SKILLS:

Highly experienced in assisting Head Professor in college
Sound knowledge of latest teaching techniques
Deep knowledge of student management procedures
Familiarity with academic planning and management
Ability to plan and manage research projects
Ability to assist students in thesis work

EMPLOYMENT AND EXPERIENCE:

Assistant Professor
London School of Economics and Political Science – London
June 2013 to Till Date

- Assisted Professor in teaching assigned courses to students.
- Recommended new research models and assisted in research projects.
- Coordinated with Professor in maintaining scholarship programs.
- Performed student assessment and provided feedback.
- Assisted students in presenting seminars at meetings and conferences.
- Developed innovative educational programs to improve student performance.

Assistant Professor
Nanyang Technological University – East Anglia
December 2012 to June 2013

- Participated in curriculum design and revision activities.
 - Assisted in developing lectures and courses for students.
 - Conducted examinations and performed student assessments.
 - Monitored and recorded student's progress.
 - Assisted in interviewing and recruiting postgraduate students.
 - Obtained grants for research programs.
-

REFERENCES:

University of Hong Kong
Chandler Davis, Research Associate
7787 Morbi St., Stromness
Oxfordshire, SZ47 9GL
[email]
Mobile: 07477 147577

Build your Resume Now