
Assistant Psychologist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking the position of Assistant Psychologist within your esteemed organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Admirable experience in treating psychological problems of patients
 - Outstanding knowledge of conducting psychometric tests
 - Exceptional knowledge of counseling techniques
 - Ability to treat children and adults with challenging behaviors
 - Familiarity with behavior dynamics and personality theories
 - Ability to work with patients having epilepsy, autism and learning difficulties
 - Ability to implement mental health programs
 - Ability to provide diagnosis and treatments for complex cases
-

Professional Experience:

Assistant Psychologist
New Jersey City University, Cleveland, OH
August 2007 – Present

- Conducted psychological tests for patients and prepared test reports.
- Attended case conferences to discuss about treatment procedures.
- Collaborated with other Psychologists in diagnosis and treatment activities.
- Provided support in psychological research projects.
- Developed treatment program based on patient's mental health assessments.
- Modified treatment program based on patient's progress.
- Assisted in clinical audit activities.
- Maintained all case records up-to-date and confidential.

Assistant Psychologist
George Mason University, Cleveland, OH
May 2004 – July 2007

- Performed neuropsychological assessments for patients.
 - Conducted interviews and observations as directed by Psychologist.
 - Assisted in development of care plans based on patient's condition.
 - Notified Psychologists about patient's responses to treatments.
 - Informed families about treatment procedures.
 - Worked with Psychologists to implement behavior management program.
 - Coordinated daily activities of therapeutic groups.
 - Identified patient's problems and determined areas of concerns.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Psychology
Briar Cliff University, Sioux City, IA

Build your Resume Now