

---

AUDIOLOGIST SPEECH PATHOLOGIST RESUME

---

Summary:

---

An expert audiologist and speech-language pathologist with a proven track record and substantial years of experience in planning and administering speech language pathology measures, improvements and evaluations; has the ability to implement appropriate treatments; excellent project management skills with a proven capacity in utilizing support staff; has the willingness and initiative to participate in special projects, as designated

---

Professional Experience:

---

Speech Pathologist January 2007 – present
ABC Private Hospital, Los Angeles, CA

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Evaluated patients of all ages with communication deficits.
- Performed evaluation and re-assessments in a timely manner in accordance to departmental policies
- Administered age-and condition-appropriate treatments.
- Collaborated with physicians and other biological disciplines to obtain maximum benefit for patient treatment.
- Instructed patients regarding treatment plans, oriented them on expected outcomes, and home programs.
- Helped in program development activities when necessary.

Speech-Language Pathologist May 2004– January 2007
Brandon & McMahon Hospital , Sacramento California

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Worked for a variety of problems related to speech, language and hearing.
- Assessed all ages of patients for various kinds of speech problems and also determined specific programs to address such.
- Conducted language problem-related workshop.
- Did counseling for in-patients as well as out-patients.
- Worked with team of physicians, support groups, schools and agencies to monitor progress of patients.
- Maintained records of patient treatments.

Clinical Supervisor February 1999 – May 2004
Foster & Price Hospital, Los Angeles California

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Evaluated patients of all ages with communication deficits.
- Performed evaluation and re-assessments in a timely manner in accordance to departmental policies
- Administered age-and condition-appropriate treatments.
- Collaborated with physicians and other biological disciplines to obtain maximum benefit for patient treatment.
- Instructed patients regarding treatment plans, oriented them on expected outcomes, and home programs.
- Helped in program development activities when necessary.

Speech-Language Pathologist May 2004– January 2007
Brandon & McMahon Hospital , Sacramento California

---

Education:

---

B.S. Speech & Language Pathologist, University of California, CA, 1999

---

Skills:

---

- Writing, presentation and correspondence skills
- Strong ability to define problems, collect data, establish facts and draw valid conclusions
- Vast knowledge in interpreting technical instructions thru representation via a mathematical way or via a diagram
- Excellent administration and people skills
- Effective verbal and written communication skills
- Strong knowledge of speech and language disabilities and on the ways these can be solved
- Remarkable ability to work both independently and in a team environment

Awards and Affiliations:

Member, American Speech-Language-Hearing Association
Member, Speech Therapy Association

Build your Resume Now