
Autism Consultant Resume

Job Objective

Seeking an Autism Consultant position where I can apply my experience and efficiently contribute to the company's growth.

Work Experience:

Autism Consultant, August 2005 – Present
Glade Run Lutheran Services, Harrogate, TN

- Provided services in the child's home, community and school.
- Provided expert autism and behavioral supervision to help families in creating an individual treatment plan depending on their goals and objectives.
- Used community resources to gain maximum improvement in the child's function with minimum disruption to the family unit.

Autism Consultant, May 2000 – July 2005
Northwestern Counseling & Support Services, Harrogate, TN

- Implemented and adhered to the Behavior Analyst Certification Board Standards in daily practice including, best practice and ethics.
 - Performed functional behavior assessment then created, facilitated and implemented therapeutic educational.
 - Performed behavioral interventions for students with various developmental diagnoses within their schools, communities and homes.
 - Trained and supported educational and behavioral staff, families, home and community-based support providers.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience working with children with autism
 - Extensive knowledge of Applied Behavioral Analysis
 - In-depth knowledge of ABA principles & pgm implementation (PRT, Verbal Behavior)
 - Possess eligibility for Act 33/34 and FBI clearances
 - Wide knowledge of ABA and DIR Floor time
 - Excellent written and verbal communication skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Counseling, Wenatchee Valley College, Wenatchee, WA
Master of Science in Counseling, Fielding Graduate University, California, CA

Build your Resume Now