

---

Autism Support Resume

---

Job Objective

Seeking a position as Autism Support with an organization where I can utilize my skills and be an asset to the employer.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- In-depth knowledge of Non-aversive behavioral intervention strategies
  - Extensive knowledge of diagnosis of autism spectrum disorder including Asperger's syndrome
  - Thorough knowledge of Data collection methods including trial-by-trial data, task analysis and A-B-C (functional analysis)
  - Exceptional ability to work with parents, teachers and other professionals in a collaborative manner
  - Skilled in applying assessment techniques and treatment modalities, interpret test data and communicate effectively
  - Excellent written and oral communication skills
  - Excellent organizational, planning and time management skills
-

Work Experience:

---

Autism Support, August 2005 – Present
Micro, Inc., Weidman, MI

- Trained paraprofessionals to work on in-home ABA programs for preschoolers with autism.
- Progressed and monitored student programs in order to achieve IEP goals.
- Assisted teachers in program progression and in resolving behavioral problems and educational needs.
- Solved problems and worked with school special services teams.
- Trained educational assistants, teachers and administrators using the Oregon Intervention Systems (OIS).

Autism Support, May 2000 – July 2005
Max Corporation, Weidman, MI

- Collaborated with principals and school teams on school needs, resources and supports.
  - Provided assistance writing IEPs including present level of academic achievement, functional development and grade level short term outcomes.
  - Assisted teams in administering behavior assessments and composed functional behavior plans when appropriate.
  - Documented student performance, progress and reports to instruct staff and parents.
  - Maintained and submitted reports to Director of Student Support Services and designee, related to any autism services.
  - Ensured required timelines, processes and procedures, documentation and student record requirements are followed according to district policy and state law.
-

Education:

---

Bachelors Degree in Psychology, University of Mississippi Medical Center, Mississippi, MS

Build your Resume Now