
Automobile Assembler Resume

Job Objective

To obtain an Automobile Assembler position in your company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Highly experienced in alignment, building and inspection of automobile assemblies
 - Sound knowledge of automobile engineering and design principles and practices
 - Extensive knowledge of production processes and handling of production line alterations
 - Familiarity with using trade-related tools and equipments, data analysis and data interpretation
 - Ability to detect, manage and respond to possible production issues
 - Ability to complete work in compliance with pre-defined work procedures and specified deadlines
-

Professional Experience:

Automobile Assembler
Mitsubishi Caterpillar Forklift America Inc., Atlanta, GA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Worked with assigned team on an assembly line and assisted with automobile assembly.
- Followed technical prints, instructions, and engineering specifications, and assembled components.
- Received, checked, and cleaned all vehicle components daily, as required.
- Lifted, positioned, and assembled automobile parts on a moving assembly line.
- Managed and performed assembly, installation, and disassembly of automobiles and sub-assemblies.
- Interpreted and adhered to all applicable safety rules and measures, at jobsite.

Automobile Assembler
Impact Resource Group, Atlanta, GA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Pre-fabricated frames, components and sub-assemblies and created a complete automobile unit, by using them.
 - Conducted pre-assembly checks on selected components and parts and ensured their quality.
 - Aligned, connected, installed and assembled all parts and sub-assemblies.
 - Operated and maintained a variety of pneumatic, hand and power tools.
 - Checked all assembled vehicles for proper functioning and compliance with specifications.
 - Detected, reported and debugged all automobile assembly-related issues.
-

Education:

Associate Degree in Mechanical Engineering
McLennan Community College, Waco, TX

Build your Resume Now