
Auxiliary Operator Resume

Job Objective

To obtain an Auxiliary Operator position in a company that provides an open environment with many opportunities for continuous growth.

Summary of Qualifications:

Strong working experience with high pressure boilers and electric generating equipment
Excellent knowledge of air pollution control equipment and boiler auxiliary plant equipment
Amazing ability to perform duties of the job including bending, stooping, walking, reaching overhead, climbing stairs, ladders and lifting up to 50 lbs
Proven ability to work under stressful conditions and rotating schedules
Ability to perform duties outside primary job skill and discipline
Ability to routinely lift and carry up to 50 lbs of weight

Work Experience:

Auxiliary Operator, May 2004 – Present

Progress Energy, Milton, DE Managed operation and inspection of various air pollution control and boiler plant auxiliary equipment, including conveyors, pumps, fans, air compressors, and electrical devices.

Recorded operational data, reported abnormalities.

Ensured safe and efficient operation of assigned equipment in accordance with the established plant operating procedures.

Maintained correct levels of refuse-fuel in the furnace charging hoppers of one and more boilers.

Maintained a fire watch over the pit and associated areas, and loading refuse into the compactor hopper. Auxiliary Operator, March 2002– April 2004

Covanta Holding, Milton, DE Ensured proper maintenance of equipment and safe work environment.

Monitored system operation by observing instruments, making inspections and listening.

Assisted in running periodic tests on equipment and systems.

Lead fire brigade, emergency medical aid, confined space rescue and hazardous material spill.

Managed documentation and record keeping.

Education:

Associate in Applied Science in Heavy Equipment Service, Southern Nazarene University, Oklahoma, OK

Build your Resume Now