
Ballast Control Operator Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Ballast Control Operator position in a reputable company that permits me to utilize my education and training for the development of the company.

Summaty of Qualifications:

In-depth knowledge of marine and drilling operations
Excellent knowledge of HSE practices common to the industry and the company
Good safety record from past operations
Ability to Work in temperature extremes due to weather conditions and operating equipment
Amazing ability to understand & react with diverse groups & operations
Superior communication and reporting skills
Excellent systems troubleshooting skills and techniques

Work Experience:

Ballast Control Operator, May 2004 – Present
Noble Corporation, Fayetteville, GA Performed routine “barge watch” and monitored duties in the control room.
Ensured safety and integrity of the unit.
Observed and recorded meteorological data, current (speed and direction), sea surface and water depth for historical information and use.
Assisted in stability planning of ballast, consumable liquids and cargo storage.
Ensured all rules; regulations and company policies are maintained in marine operations, drilling operations, and operation of equipment.
Ballast Control Operator, March 2002– April 2004
Brass-Co Oil Drilling Company, Fayetteville, GA Monitored, reported and corrected any discrepancy related to safety.
Handled inspection and certification programs for the assigned area.
Assisted in troubleshooting and servicing and repair of equipment.
Performed inspections and maintenance on lifesaving and safety equipment.
Inspected structural parts and systems on the rig.
Submitted equipment reports when required by the Barge Engineer.

Education:

High School Diploma, Auburn High School, Riner, VA

Build your Resume Now