

---

Bereavement Counselor Resume

---

Job Objective

Looking for the career as a Bereavement Counselor that allows me to utilize my knowledge and counseling skills in the best possible ways.

---

Work Experience:

---

- Bereavement Counselor, 2006 to Present
  - Hospice of the Comforter, Altamonte Springs, FL
  - Explained client's about psychology behind attachment, grief and loss.
  - Counseled about the normal grieving process.
  - Supported and counseled grieving adults and children to cope with death.
  - Assisted clients through the feelings, thoughts and memories associated with the loss of a loved one.
  - Assisted clients with complicated and abnormal grief reactions to deal better with the conflict of separation applying specialized techniques.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Immense ability to identify client's behavioral changes
  - Extended ability to discuss client's issues and concerns
  - Wide knowledge of psychology, social work and theology
  - Solid ability to assist adults and children who have experienced a loss
  - Profound ability to collect information about the client's situation and feelings
-

Education:

B.S. in Human Development and Family Studies, 2004, Auburn University
M.S in Counseling, 2006, California State University

---

Build your Resume Now