
BIOLOGY TEACHER RESUME

Summary:

An exceptional academic individual with awards and recognitions associated in Biology and science attached to his name; has committed to develop excellence in every student that he teaches; has great ability to motivate and drive students to succeed in everything that they do; coordinates with other professors to come up with programs to give more information about the courses that he teaches

Professional Experience:

Biology Professor June 2007- Present
University of California, CA

Responsibilities:

- Delivered lectures on topics on Biology such as molecular biology, marine biology, and botany.
- Evaluated the students' grades, class assignments, and laboratory works.
- Coordinated with colleagues for the improvement of course materials.
- Conducted researches on the developments in the field by reading current literature, conducting surveys, and participating in professional conferences.
- Maintained student attendance records, grades, and other required records.

Application Specialist – Life Science May 2004– January 2007
University of California, CA

Responsibilities:

- Assisting in the pre-sales process by demonstrating the technical advantages of products to the customer base and potential customers, as well as providing post sales and application support.
- Presented documentary seminars held at different universities.

Biological Technician February 1999 – May 2004
Biofit Research Institute, CA

Responsibilities:

- Delivered lectures on topics on Biology such as molecular biology, marine biology, and botany.
- Evaluated the students' grades, class assignments, and laboratory works.
- Coordinated with colleagues for the improvement of course materials.
- Conducted researches on the developments in the field by reading current literature, conducting surveys, and participating in professional conferences.
- Maintained student attendance records, grades, and other required records.

Application Specialist – Life Science May 2004– January 2007
University of California, CA

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Biology, University of Arizona, 1999
Masters Degree in Education, University of Arizona, 1997

Skills/Certifications:

- Excellent communication and presentation skills
 - Proficient in computer skills
 - Excellent time management skills
 - Ability to evaluate students' performance, behavior, social development, and physical health
-

Associations/Organizations:

National Association of Biology Teachers, Member
Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology, Member

Build your Resume Now