

---

Biomedical Engineering Manager Resume

---

Job Objective

---

To secure a position with an expanding company as Biomedical Engineering Manager where my education and experience can be utilized to the fullest.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Huge experience in managing financial and administrative functions for a biomedical engineering facility
  - Outstanding knowledge of electronic biomedical engineering and related principles
  - Exceptional knowledge of color code conventions and wiring marking
  - Remarkable ability to supervise clinical engineering staff
  - Sound ability to make appropriate decisions efficiently and effectively
  - Ability to identify and resolve all problems
  - Ability to perform calibration and repair of biomedical equipment and instrumentation
-

Professional Experience:

---

Biomedical Engineering Manager
Kaiser Permanente, Irving, TX
October 2008 – Present

- Performed complex repair work on various medical equipments and provided required solutions.
- Managed complex installations and complex repairs for biomedical equipments and provided regular maintenance.
- Ensured compliance to all OEM specifications and performed installations as per specifications.
- Provided technical support to installations and resolved complex problems.
- Maintained knowledge on technical aspects and ensured proficient in product lines.
- Managed work according to current standards and procedures for effective use of all biomedical equipments.
- Administered appropriate work of all assigned tools and equipments.
- Prepared reports and summaries for work to be conducted according to schedule.

Senior Biomedical Engineering Specialist
Barnes Jewish Hospital, Irving, TX
August 2003 – September 2008

- Performed advanced technical service functions for various biomedical instrumentation.
- Administered everyday activities for bioinstrumentation technical service staff and contractors.
- Prepared periodic reports and maintained performance records on all data.
- Assisted other departments in preparing cost estimates for technical services.
- Evaluated all technical service contracts and assisted in selection.
- Assisted in training engineering specialist in advanced skills.

Biomedical Engineering Tech
Alexian Brothers Health System, Irving, TX
May 1998 – July 2003

- Performed preventative and corrective maintenance on various patient and laboratory research equipments.
  - Install specialized electronic clinical equipments and modified it if required.
  - Ensured compliance to all clinical engineering practices and policies for all repair work.
  - Maintained departmental records for all safety forms according to Federal and State regulations.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Biomedical Engineering Technology
Rogers State University, Claremore, OK

Build your Resume Now