
BIOMEDICAL FIELD SERVICE ENGINEER RESUME

Job Objective:

To secure a Biomedical Field Service Engineer position within a fast growing industry in which my expertise can help the business meet its goals.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive field engineering experience as well as remarkable practicality in the medical industry
 - Sound knowledge of equipment repair and troubleshooting techniques and procedures
 - Skilled in installing, troubleshooting, repairing Healthcare Diagnostics instrumentation
 - Ability to think and act in a logical and methodical way
 - Proficiency in managing a biomedical engineering program at the local level
 - Amazing ability to manage professionally
 - Outstanding ability to develop effective rapport with clients
 - Superior communication and problem-solving skills
-

Professional Experience:

Biomedical Field Service Engineer, August 2005 – Present
IRIS International, Deerfield Beach, FL

- Executed instrument field service functions and regulated instrumentation problems and repairs.
- Aided as a team member to impart assistance for service activities.
- Outlined travel arrangements for service calls.
- Coordinated with management about service activities.

Biomedical Field Service Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
GE Healthcare, Deerfield Beach, FL

- Managed on-site installation at domestic sites as well as repaired life sciences and biomedical systems.
 - Extended engineering phone support and coordinated with client to resolve problems.
 - Maintained documentation pertaining at each customer site and executed routine maintenance of instruments.
 - Coordinated with engineering staff and customers.
-

Education:

B.S in Biomedical Engineering, Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, PA

Build your Resume Now