
Biometric Health Screener Resume

Job Objective

To use my abilities and skills and gain employment as Biometric Health Screener.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Substantial experience of providing biometric based health assessment and screening services
 - Extensive knowledge of body fat analysis, cholesterol testing, BMI calculations, and height & weight measurements
 - Commendable knowledge of medical terminology and patient care delivery practices
 - Proficient in using computer, Cholestech machine, and screening equipments
 - Ability to enter, update, and maintain accurate records of screening results
 - Ability to provide health and wellness related consultations to clients
-

Professional Experience:

Biometric Health Screener
Integrated Corporate Health, Washington, DC
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Set up and maintained the client-registration station for health screenings and events.
 - Performed and coordinated health-based screening and registration of clients, in a timely manner.
 - Educated and explained clients about required paperwork and biometric procedures.
 - Calculated and analyzed BMI and body fat percentage for clients.
 - Tested blood samples and checked cholesterol, glucose, and hemoglobin levels.
 - Measured and documented blood pressure, height, and weight of clients, accurately.
 - Operated and maintained cuffs, full-body sensors, and Cholestech machine, properly.
 - Communicated and discussed individual screening outcomes to respective clients.
 - Addressed health requirements of clients and provided relevant health advice.
 - Attended and participated in various health fairs and promotional events, as required.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Exercise Science
Keiser University, Fort Lauderdale, FL

Build your Resume Now