
BIOMETRICS TECHNICIAN RESUME

Objective:

To be able to work as a Biometrics Technician and apply my skills and experience in BATS and HIIDE systems in enforcing security and clearance in the company.

Education:

MS in Biometrics Technology, 2003
Cornell University

BS in Biometrics Technology, 1999
Cornell University

Skills:

- Strong familiarity with Biometric Automated Toolset database (BATS)
- Experienced in integrating fingerprint, iris scanning, and facial recognition technology
- Knowledgeable in Interagency Identity Detection Equipment (HIIDE) systems
- Skilled in Force Protection, Security, and Intelligence
- Strong communication/interpersonal skills

Professional Experience:

- Biometrics Technician III, 2008-present
- Hahl, Inc., Chestertown, MD

Responsibilities:

- Processed proper documentation of operations to obtain new industrial security clearance questionnaire (e-Quip) Strategic Business Units.
- Performed all operations associated with BAT enrollments determine security risks.
- Performed regular maintenance and monitoring of all equipment and systems to include replacement of consumables.
- Biometrics Technician II, 2005-2008
- Hagen, Inc., Chestertown, MD

Responsibilities:

- Tracked clearances in process and managed active clearances using JPAS/JCAVS.
- Interpreted and utilized test results and database analysis to determine security risks.
- Supervised and managed the overall operation of equipments and sysstems to ensure compliance with established guidelines.
- Biometrics Technician I, 2003-2005
- Hahl, Inc., Chestertown, MD

Responsibilities:

- Processed proper documentation of operations to obtain new industrial security clearance questionnaire (e-Quip) Strategic Business Units.
- Performed all operations associated with BAT enrollments determine security risks.
- Performed regular maintenance and monitoring of all equipment and systems to include replacement of consumables.
- Biometrics Technician II, 2005-2008
- Hagen, Inc., Chestertown, MD

Certifications and Affiliations:

Certificate in Academy Primary Leadership Development Course
Institute of Professional Biometrics Technician

