
Blood Bank Phlebotomist Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Blood Bank Phlebotomist position that fully utilizes my experience and abilities.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience of blood collection, typing, and storage in a blood bank
 - Sound knowledge of blood collection methods like venipunctures and finger sticks
 - Commendable knowledge of specimen preparation and blood irradiation procedures
 - Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, Access, and PowerPoint programs
 - Ability to conduct medical interviews and select eligible blood donors
 - Ability to manage and finish all assigned tasks, in a timely manner
-

Professional Experience:

Blood Bank Phlebotomist
St. Vincent Medical Center, Monroe, NY
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Received and responded to query calls from blood donors and laboratory technologists.
 - Oversaw and assisted in management of donor room staffing activities, if needed.
 - Interviewed potential donors and determined their eligibility, in an efficient manner.
 - Registered all eligible donors and reviewed their medical history information.
 - Obtained blood units from donors and followed sterile blood collection procedures.
 - Identified various blood antibodies and performed antigen typing of all donors' blood.
 - Cross-matched, thawed and delivered appropriate blood products for transfusion process.
 - Used computer to perform data entry and prepared all needed reports.
 - Monitored and maintained the inventory-level and quality of all reagents, equipments, and related supplies.
 - Maintained and provided all safe and infection-free blood units and products.
 - Interpreted and complied with policies and guidelines of AABB, as applicable.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Medical Technology
Macalester College, Saint Paul, MN

Build your Resume Now