

---

BROADCAST ENGINEER RESUME

---

Career Objective:

Seeking long-term position as a Broadcast Engineer with company offering advancement and extensive training options.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable systems engineering experience in maintaining broadcast television and production equipment
- Profound knowledge of broadcast television operations, DV, webcast video signals, broadcast audio, Video and Control Systems and video servers
- Steep knowledge in TV operations and engineering as well as IT networking, Firewalls, MPEG and structural engineering
- Solid understanding of broadcast rules, systems design documents and signal flow drawings
- Familiarity with television broadcast engineering principles and equipment maintenance and repair
- Strong skills of handling technical equipment problems and repair of digital and computer systems
- Superior communication skills

Work Experience:

Broadcast Engineer, August 2005 – Present
CACI International, Inc., Grand Prairie, TX

- Managed complex electronic, computer based, optical and mechanical broadcasting systems.
- Handled equipment in emergency and preventative situations.
- Operated varied broadcasting equipment and outlined technical records and engineering logs.
- Aided in video postproduction and maintained remote production facilities.
- Checked fresh equipment prior to installation.
- Maintained broadcast equipment.

Broadcast Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Entercom Wichita LLC, Grand Prairie, TX

- Managed specialist equipment and supervised audiovisual links between different units.
- Installed new facilities and operated editing facilities.
- Reviewed technical faults and managed service in times of equipment failure.
- Formulated equipment and transmission links as well as installed custom audiovisual circuits.
- Rectified hardware, software and broadcast technology systems as well as manufactured new circuits, hardware and systems.
- Enforced instructions and requests from producers, directors and colleagues.

Education:

Bachelor of Engineering in Electronics, Moraine Park Technical College, Fond du Lac, WI

Build your Resume Now