
Cable Assembler Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a full-time job as a Cable Assembler.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience in wiring, soldering and fabrication of cables and wire harnesses
 - Profound knowledge of crimping cables and dressing out wire-harnesses
 - Outstanding knowledge of wiring color codes, wire size, and circular mil area requirements
 - Familiarity with using automated testing equipments, soldering irons, crimping tools and other hand tools
 - Ability to read and work from manufacturing drawings and schematics
 - Ability to adhere to all applicable company quality standards for cable assembly
-

Professional Experience:

Cable Assembler
L-3 Communications, Houston, TX
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Interpreted and followed cable-assembly instructions, schematics, and manufacturing drawings.
 - Prepared, joined, and assembled electronic, electrical and mechanical components.
 - Handled and labeled all wires, connectors and cables of assembled unit, properly.
 - Performed pre-assembly checks on components and conducted post-assembly inspection of final product.
 - Cleaned and organized jobsite and complied with established workplace safety practices.
 - Operated and maintained various hand tools, crimp tools and assembly-line equipments.
-

Cable Assembler
Carlisle Interconnect Technologies, Houston, TX
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Performed all tasks related to fabrication, repair and modification of cable assemblies, as required.
 - Interpreted and worked from blueprints, work orders and specifications to create cable assemblies.
 - Checked, cut, resized, crimped and soldered all wire and cabling components.
 - Positioned, joined and assembled all sub-assemblies, in an accurate manner.
 - Added labels and protective coatings to assembled cabling product, as required.
 - Tested and debugged all cable assemblies to ensure their proper functioning.
-

Education:

High School Diploma
Lovell High School, Cutler, CA

Build your Resume Now