
Cancer Researcher Resume

Job Objective

Seeking employment as a Cancer Researcher with established firm where my past experience can be an asset.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Vast experience in performing regular research in oncology and assisting in finding various antibodies for cancer
 - Sound knowledge of science and health research
 - Wide knowledge of molecular and biochemical research
 - Ability to identify and resolve all problems
 - Ability to deliver all projects on time
 - Ability to analyzing high-dimensional data
 - Ability to lead a team of clinical researchers effectively
 - Excellent communication skills in both oral and written forms
-

Professional Experience:

Cancer Researcher

Cancer Care, Inc., Jackson, MS

November 2007 – Present

- Coordinated with event manager and prepared all materials required for same such as participant list, name badges and packages.
- Performed regular inspections on shipments going for conferences and checked it on its return.
- Assisted event manager in organizing events especially ones held offsite.
- Participated in registration desk on event day.
- Organized travel plans for out of town guests for various events.
- Managed various workshop and evaluated all work on same.
- Prepared various lecture in coordination with communication officer.

Cancer Researcher

Merrimack Pharmaceuticals, Jackson, MS

December 2003 – October 2007

- Managed all event related work and ensured print and electronic media participation.
 - Maintained website traffic and ensured optimization of search engine in research.
 - Prepared various materials to increase knowledge and cater to appropriate audience.
 - Ensured a base of volunteers required for work on a regular basis.
 - Monitored all activities of volunteers and coordinated with them on same.
 - Participated in various national conferences conducted for cancer research.
 - Performed regular checks on budget and ensured compliance to same.
-

Education:

PhD in Biophysics

Coastal Carolina University, Conway, SC

Build your Resume Now