
Cardiac Electrophysiology Technologist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking the position of Cardiac Electrophysiology Technologist where I can display my dedication and skills.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience of mapping of electrophysiology cardiac rhythms and performing related documentation
 - Sound knowledge of cardiovascular anatomy, physiology, and medicine
 - Commendable knowledge of aseptic techniques, emergency first aid, and CPR
 - Proficient in operation of Ensite Velocity and other biomedical equipments
 - Ability to communicate with medical staff, patients and their families, in a helpful manner
 - Ability to perform data manipulation and interpretation using computers
-

Professional Experience:

Cardiac Electrophysiology Technologist
UTMB Health, Maitland, FL
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Handled and performed diagnostic cardiac mapping of patients.
 - Provided diagnostic testing support to physician and supported with patient treatment initiatives.
 - Recorded, maintained, and delivered all test findings, accurately and on time.
 - Prepared and submitted monthly and annual clinical work-related reports, in a timely manner.
 - Developed and maintained strong professional relationships with physicians, colleagues and other medical staff.
 - Interpreted and complied with specified policies related to electrophysiology procedures.
-

Cardiac Electrophysiology Technologist
Allina Health System, Maitland, FL
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Evaluated patient's case history and determined appropriate diagnostic procedures.
 - Handled and executed cardiac electrophysiology radiographic procedures, as required.
 - Utilized and monitored the CartoXP and Ensite Velocity to map electrophysiology rhythms.
 - Documented and tracked cardiac status and health progress to the implemented care.
 - Produced and provided procedure recordings and test reports to physicians.
 - Inspected, calibrated and maintained all assigned diagnostic equipments, safely.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Cardiovascular Technology
Harris-Stowe State University, Saint Louis, MO

Build your Resume Now