

---

Cardiac Nurse Specialist Resume

---

Job Objective

Experienced Cardiac Nurse Specialist looking for work within the qualifying field in order to fill a need within the company.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

- RN with remarkable experience in cardiac and critical care nursing
  - In-depth knowledge of cardiac anatomy & physiology and of hemodynamic monitoring
  - Sound knowledge of nursing processes and practices
  - Familiarity with EKG, CAD, blood pressure, and glucose monitoring
  - Profound ability to work independently and make sound judgments
  - Proficient with word processing and working knowledge of a PC
  - Excellent communication, interpersonal and organizational skills
  - Exceptional data analysis and research interpretation skills
-

Work Experience:

Cardiac Nurse Specialist, May 2006 – Present
Providence Health & Services, Little Rock, AR

- Administered care of patients with various cardiovascular ailments.
- Performed stress tests and provided health assessments.
- Provided emotional support and education to the patient and the patient's family.
- Maintained detailed records of each patient.
- Worked effectively in critical care units.
- Ensured to carry out the care plan approved by the doctor.

Cardiac Nurse Specialist, March 2003 – April 2006
Aurora Health Care, Little Rock, AR

- Provided care according to the age specifications and developmental needs.
  - Provided teaching and counseling to the patient and their family.
  - Integrated health promotion and preventive aspects of care.
  - Determined priorities of patient care based on essential patient needs.
  - Communicated with physicians to confirm, correlate, and update patient's plan of care.
  - Ensured to provide status updates to physicians on regular basis.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Nursing, Charter Oak State College, New Britain, CT
Master's Degree in Nursing, San Antonio College, San Antonio, TX

---

Build your Resume Now