

CARDIO PULMONARY TECHNOLOGIST RESUME

Summary:

A professionally trained and certified individual with proven years of experience; with an excellent professional record in handling cardiopulmonary functions diagnosis, operations and equipment; possesses exceptional written and verbal communication skills, has the ability to operate technologically advanced equipment such as electrocardiogram machines, ultrasound machines and defibrillators; is detail-oriented, quick-witted and has presence of mind even under pressure; worked as part of a team and can quickly grasp information essential in effectively acquiring new skills.

Professional Experience:

Cardiopulmonary Technician
Ohio General Hospital January 2006 –Present

Responsibilities:

- Assisted doctors in the identification and treatment of diseases related to patients' heart and lungs.
- Monitored blood pressure and heart rates of patients with an ECG machine.
- Operated blood circulation equipment during medical cases when needed, for patients' circulatory or respiratory function needs.
- Consulted with physicians in the selection of appropriate equipment, anesthetics, or drugs to be given to the patient, combining the right techniques and appropriate doses.
- Performed routine maintenance checks on diagnostics machines and reviewed physician's interpretations on patient tests.
- Purchased supplies and equipment needed for hospital.

Respiratory Therapy Technician June 2004– January 2006
ABC Medical Laboratory, California USA

Responsibilities:

- Performed cardiopulmonary evaluations, respiratory therapy treatments, and provided consultation sessions to patients.
- Coordinated advanced media technology with test results, medical reports and existing records.
- Recorded, analyzed and communicated test results to different medical practitioners.
- Monitored patient's physiological responses such as vital signs and blood chemistry changes.

Assistant Laboratory Technician February 2000 – May 2004
Quest Medical Laboratory, California

Responsibilities:

- Assisted doctors in the identification and treatment of diseases related to patients' heart and lungs.
- Monitored blood pressure and heart rates of patients with an ECG machine.
- Operated blood circulation equipment during medical cases when needed, for patients' circulatory or respiratory function needs.
- Consulted with physicians in the selection of appropriate equipment, anesthetics, or drugs to be given to the patient, combining the right techniques and appropriate doses.
- Performed routine maintenance checks on diagnostics machines and reviewed physician's interpretations on patient tests.
- Purchased supplies and equipment needed for hospital.

Respiratory Therapy Technician June 2004– January 2006
ABC Medical Laboratory, California USA

Education:

1995- 1999 A.A. in Medical Support
University of Rochester, NY

Skills:

- Good oral and written communication skills
- Experience in handling advance medical equipment
- Good interpersonal skills
- Ability to grasp information quickly

- Organized, people-oriented and results-driven

Awards and Affiliations:

Member, American Society of Cardiovascular Perfusion (Amsect)
Member, American Board of Cardiovascular Perfusion (ABCP)

Build your Resume Now