
Cargo Surveyor Resume

Job Objective

A talented Cargo Surveyor with great skills and experience looking for a job in a well known organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Excellent experience in managing cargo while performing marine surveys
 - Sound knowledge of technical aspects of conducting marine surveys
 - Profound knowledge of identifying potential hazards
 - Ability to comply to various instructions for performing cargo surveys
 - Ability to provide optimal level of customer services
 - Proficient in preparing draft and condition surveys
-

Professional Experience:

Cargo Surveyor
ABS Group of Companies, Inc., Fort Hancock, TX
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Supervised smooth discharge of cargoes and prepared reports for any damages incurred.
- Administered effective movement of goods and performed examination accordingly.
- Monitored loading and unloading of various petroleum products in the refinery.
- Performed regular damage surveys on floating objects.
- Evaluated work and ensured compliance to official standards and regulations.
- Participated in job training programs and maintained records of samples obtained from commodity.

Cargo Surveyor
FMC Technologies, Fort Hancock, TX
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Utilized sound line and tape measure and calculated the hold of each ship.
 - Analysed data obtained from various cargo surveys.
 - Performed regular inspection of handling devices and identified any maintenance requirement.
 - Calculated hold capacity of the vessel and measured appropriate quantity of goods.
 - Performed regular surveys on yachts and maintained effective working of equipment's and systems.
 - Ensured compliance to national and international safety regulations for cargo activities.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering
Briarcliffe College, Bethpage, NY

Build your Resume Now