

---

Certified Athletic Trainer Resume

---

Job Objective

Accomplished Certified Athletic Trainer searching for position with well-established firm where my experienced will be utilized to the fullest.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Profound knowledge in sports medicine and concussion
  - Strong critical thinking skills
  - Exceptional ability to communicate effectively with patients, families, physicians
  - Strong ability to work with others within a team to ensure quality patient care
  - Profound ability to act as a resource for patients, physicians and therapists for expertise in the area of athletic training
  - Uncommon ability to push and pull on a wheeled device up to 200 lbs
  - Excellent ability to work independently
-

Professional Experience:

---

Certified Athletic Trainer
Sacred Heart Health System, Richmond, CA
February 2009 – Present

- Diagnosed, treated and rehabilitated muscle and bone injuries.
- Evaluated athletic musculoskeletal problems.
- Developed treatment programs and treated patients as prescribed and indicated.
- Supervised tasks and maintained appropriate records.
- Reported patient progress to physicians.
- Educated athlete regarding treatment plan and rehabilitative process.
- Maintained injury tracking system and documentation on all athletes.

Certified Athletic Trainer
PreCare, Inc., Richmond, CA
September 2005 – January 2009

- Provided patient care under direction of physical therapist.
  - Participated in Athletic Training Services program and school athletic events.
  - Designed and applied therapeutic programs for injured.
  - Maintained and coordinated inventory and safe operation of equipment.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Exercise Science
Neumont University, Salt Lake City, UT

Build your Resume Now