
Charge Nurse Resume

Job Objective

Looking for a Charge Nurse position within your hospital.

Work Experience:

Charge Nurse, August 2005 – Present
Mercy Memorial Hospital, Vero Beach, FL

- Supervised staff engaged in direct patient care and ensured quality services.
- Managed shift operation efficiently and effectively.
- Conducted staff meetings and consulted patient needs and operations to improve delivery of care.
- Reported personnel and patient care status, issues, and information.
- Assessed daily patient care needs and developed and distributed patient care assignments.
- Evaluated staff performance in conjunction with the Director of Nursing.

Charge Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
Glendale Adventist Medical Center, Vero Beach, FL

- Coordinated the provision of patient care.
 - Ensured that procedures, standards of care and practice, and regulations are upheld.
 - Reported discrepancy and ensured all discrepancies are resolved prior to anyone leaving duty.
 - Coordinated patient care activities of the unit.
 - Developed supported, improved and participated in the medical centers Continuous Quality Improvement (CQI) program.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Admirable experience in medical surgical and clinical nursing
 - Strong knowledge base of nursing and clinical procedures
 - Ability to deal professionally with the medical staff and other departments
 - Ability to function under stress and emergency situations, critical thinking abilities
 - Ability to provide services for pediatric, adult and geriatric populations with various diagnosis
 - Ability to handle emergencies calmly and efficiently
 - Familiarity with assessment, planning, implementation, and evaluation of nursing care
 - Excellent organizational and leadership skills
-

Education:

B.S in Nursing and Care, Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, AZ

Build your Resume Now