
CHASSIS ENGINEER RESUME

Summary:

A hardworking engineer who has vast knowledge in troubleshooting; a highly trained individual who is an all-around mechanic; has the ability to handle repairs relating to different brands of automobiles; has great time management, diagnostic, mechanical and problem-solving skills; has the ability to maximize time and finish the job before the required deadline.

Professional Experience:

Automotive Head Technician, February 2008- Present
Auto Works, Los Angeles, California

Responsibilities:

Scheduled repairs to be done on vehicles that come in daily.
Overhauled components, if necessary, in order to offer cost effective prices to customer.
Utilized the use of diagnostic test equipment to troubleshoot electrical components of the vehicle.
Replaced defective under chassis parts.
Estimated cost of repairs and replacements and presented them to the customers, for approval.
Ordered parts from suppliers to facilitate timely repairs.
Ensured the quality of work done before releasing vehicle.
Conducted tune-ups to vehicles for service and conducted regular maintenance checks.
Service Mechanic Head, April 2006- February 2008
Mega Auto Shop, San Jose, California

Responsibilities:

- Scheduled repairs to be done on vehicles that come in daily.
- Overhauled components, if necessary, in order to offer cost effective prices to customer.
- Utilized the use of diagnostic test equipment to troubleshoot electrical components of the vehicle.
- Replaced defective under chassis parts.
- Estimated cost of repairs and replacements and presented them to the customers, for approval.
- Ordered parts from suppliers to facilitate timely repairs.
- Ensured the quality of work done before releasing vehicle.
- Conducted tune-ups to vehicles for service and conducted regular maintenance checks.

Service Mechanic Head, April 2006- February 2008
Mega Auto Shop, San Jose, California

Responsibilities:

- Scheduled repairs to be done on vehicles that come in daily.
- Overhauled components, if necessary, in order to offer cost effective prices to customer.
- Utilized the use of diagnostic test equipment to troubleshoot electrical components of the vehicle.
- Replaced defective under chassis parts.
- Estimated cost of repairs and replacements and presented them to the customers, for approval.
- Ordered parts from suppliers to facilitate timely repairs.
- Ensured the quality of work done before releasing vehicle.
- Conducted tune-ups to vehicles for service and conducted regular maintenance checks.

Service Mechanic Head, April 2006- February 2008
Mega Auto Shop, San Jose, California

Education:

Masters in Mechanical Engineering
University of California-Irvine, 2002
Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering
University of California-Irvine, 2000

Skills/Certifications:

- Knowledgeable in operating diagnostic machines
- Skills in using hand tools and equipment
- Exceptional time management skills

- Excellent communication skills

Associations/Organizations:

Federation of Automotive Engineering Societies, Member
Society of Automotive Engineers, Member

Build your Resume Now