
Chemical Plant Operator Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Chemical Plant Operator position that offers an immediate challenge, career opportunity and advancement.

Summary of Qualifications:

Strong accomplished experience in process chemical plant
Proficient in operating chemical processing equipment and non destructive test equipments
Proficient in operating forklift and power driven pumps
Excellent analytical and problem solving skills
Remarkable ability to set up computer numerical control machines
Amazing ability to use technical information in manufacturing industrial activities
Ability to follow written and verbal instructions
Ability to work independently and in team environment
Ability to execute strenuous, sometimes repetitive physical work such as lifting, pushing or pulling objects up to 50 pounds

Work Experience:

Chemical Plant Operator, May 2004 – Present
Regency Energy Partners, Fayetteville, GA
Handled receiving and loading of chemical products in rail cars or tank trucks, processed control.
Charged raw materials, followed written procedures for circuits, monitored and optimized process conditions to create a high quality and cost efficient product.
Obtained and utilized proper packaging supplies.
Performed self-checks for quality and correctness, and maintained housekeeping.
Operated reactors, storage tanks, filters, lab tests and associated utilities.
Performed routine lab tests and troubleshoot process and equipment problems.
Chemical Plant Operator, March 2002–April 2004
Westinghouse Electric Company, Fayetteville, GA
Operated production equipment in accordance with SOPs.
Worked in accordance with outlined safety procedures and completed work in a timely manner.
Performed additional duties as outlined by management.
Worked with hazardous chemicals and waster, handled all materials and equipment appropriately.

Education:

Associate's Degree in Chemical Engineering, Cardinal Stritch University, Wisconsin, WI

Build your Resume Now