

---

CHEMISTRY PROFESSOR RESUME

---

Job Objective:

---

Chemistry Professor with exceptional academic background seeking employment in a reputed college.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Wide experience in teaching Chemistry courses to undergraduates
  - Profound knowledge of chemical structure, property and composition of substances
  - Exceptional knowledge of laboratory techniques
  - Familiarity with instructional methodologies
  - Ability to ensure student safety in laboratory
  - Ability to teach student groups from diverse backgrounds
  - Ability to enforce student discipline policies in classrooms
-

Professional Experience:

---

Chemistry Professor
St. Lawrence University, Jessieville, AR
August 2007 – Present

- Obtained external funds for lab supplies.
- Developed budgets for maintaining chemistry department.
- Assisted in curriculum developmental activities.
- Developed and revised course materials.
- Monitored student progress and provided feedback for improvements.
- Assisted in student registration, advisement and placement activities.
- Provided support in department planning activities.
- Attended professional developmental seminars.

Chemistry Professor
Paul Quinn College, Jessieville, AR
May 2004 – July 2007

- Conducted chemical researches and documented findings.
  - Maintained daily lesson plans.
  - Drafted examination papers and conducted and graded student exams.
  - Provided homework and assignment for students.
  - Facilitated class discussions to provide quality learning experiences.
  - Maintained student attendance and progress records.
  - Ensured that students followed college rules.
  - Conducted chemical experiments in laboratory.
-

Education:

---

PhD in Chemistry
Shawnee State University, Portsmouth, OH

Master's Degree in Chemistry
Essex County College, Newark, NJ

Build your Resume Now