
Chief Nurse Executive Resume

Job Objective

Respected Chief Nurse Executive seeks position where my skills would be used for the betterment of the company and its employees.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong accomplished experience in nursing and health care administration
 - In-depth knowledge of nursing techniques, procedures and nursing care standards
 - Huge knowledge of hospital operations and planning
 - Sound knowledge of the financial implications of decisions including budgeting and forecasting for all nursing units and projects
 - Exceptional knowledge of state and federal laws and ICF-MR rules, regulations, policy and procedures
 - Effective communications skills with diverse groups, including physicians
 - Ability to maintain productivity and resources within established goals.
-

Professional Experience:

Chief Nurse Executive
Bay Area Medical Center, Toledo, OH
August 2007 – Present

- Managed nursing services for patient care delivery.
- Recruited interdisciplinary teams for nursing care and patient care services.
- Recommended changes and improved resource-allocation policy adhering to hospital's objectives.
- Trained nursing personnel in patient care services and defined areas.
- Assessed and forecasted trends; developed and implemented policies, managed systems and programs.

Chief Nurse Executive
Cape Fear Valley Medical Center, Toledo, OH
May 2004- July 2007

- Recommended processes and procedures and ensured patient satisfaction throughout the hospital.
 - Planned and maintained staffing pattern for nursing units.
 - Managed and recruited nursing staff adhering to policies and procedures.
 - Handled budgets and income statement impact.
 - Assured availability of qualified nurses.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Nursing
US Army War College, Carlisle, PA

Build your Resume Now