
Child Psychologist Resume

Job Objective

An Experienced Child Psychologist with a strong desire to serve and help people seeking employment within your esteemed organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Admirable experience in treating children's behavioral disorders
 - Exceptional knowledge of play therapy and other intervention programs
 - Deep knowledge of behavior dynamics and personality theories
 - Wide knowledge of autism spectrum disorders, ADHD, and learning disabilities
 - Good understanding of typical child development and psychopathology in childhood
 - Familiarity with psychological assessment and treatment techniques
 - Ability to provide child and family counseling services
 - Ability to implement care plan
 - Ability to work with children aged 0-12 years
 - Ability to understand aboriginal social and cultural issues
-

Professional Experience:

Child Psychologist

Bas Healthcare, New York, NY

August 2007 – Present

- Contacted primary care physicians to market psychiatry programs.
- Implemented Individualized Educational Plans (IEP) for each child.
- Maintained complete records of treatments, progress and behavioral data.
- Assessed children's needs and helped to overcome their deficiencies.
- Conducted psychology tests and analyzed test results.
- Determined child's eligibility for special needs programs based on test results.
- Informed parents about teaching strategies, parenting skills and behavior modification techniques.
- Reported appropriate authorities about child abuse and neglect.

Child Psychologist

Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, New York, NY

May 2004 – July 2007

- Performed health and behavior assessments for children.
 - Provided diagnosis for mental illness and co-occurring disorders.
 - Developed treatment plan to achieve child's psychotherapy goals.
 - Implemented instructional programs and materials for special needs child.
 - Maintained records of student attendances and services provided.
 - Provided educational trainings to psychologist interns.
 - Assisted in research programs to address learning and behavior issues.
 - Maintained positive working relationships with Physicians, Parents and Patients.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Child Psychology

South Georgia College, Douglas, GA Bachelor's Degree in Child Psychology

Ursuline College, Pepper Pike, OH

Build your Resume Now