

---

Classic Asp Developer Resume

---

Job Objective

Seeking a challenging and rewarding position as a Classic ASP Developer.

---

Work Experience:

Classic ASP Developer, July 2006 – Present
Wast, Inc., Seminole, TX

- Created, planned and implemented solutions on assigned moderately complex projects.
- Developed total design on complex projects and determined business requirements.
- Determined and developed solutions to highly complex problems.
- Applied deep level understanding of the principles of software development.
- Designed, coded, and debugged complex applications using multiple languages.
- Assisted in the development and design of program specifications.
- Developed test plans, test cases and test data.
- Implemented, tracked and supported unit and system testing.
- Ensured completeness and accurate development of project requirements.

Classic ASP Developer, May 2002 – June 2006
Trinity Corporation, Seminole, TX

- Developed and maintained a thorough knowledge of key business processes, requirements and key success factors.
  - Gathered and collected information from existing systems, analyzed program and time requirements.
  - Created and developed documentation in work assignments such as program code and technical documentation.
  - Interfaced with other IT groups and customers, both internal and external.
  - Provided support for testing new releases and products.
  - Researched and recommended next-generation programming languages and tools.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Experience developing in Classic ASP/VBScript
  - Familiarity with JavaScript, XML, SOAP, HTML, AJAX, SQL, ADO, CSS
  - Operational knowledge of classic ASP programming and JAVA script programming
  - Broad knowledge in web based application development and systems architecture
  - Proficient in ASP.NET, C#.NET, and SQL Server database design, development, and testing
  - Exceptional ability to work as part of team and independently
  - Excellent communication skills to work effectively with team members, support personnel and clients
  - Ability to interact with end users to help create solutions
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer engineering, Eastern Washington University, Washington, WA

---

Build your Resume Now