
CLINICAL SOCIOLOGIST RESUME

Summary:

A highly knowledgeable and passionate professional with proven years of experience in counselling and treating industry-related issues and problems of patients; efficiently applies principles of psychology to personnel handling, administration, management and marketing problems; equipped with an exceptional knowledge of human and industry behavior and performance, mental processes, psychological research, and assessment methods; has profound knowledge of research methods, techniques and sources information; is able to communicate information and ideas clearly and concisely through verbal and written forms; reads and understands information presented in writing.

Professional Experience:

Clinical Sociologist January 2007 – Present
Hospice Buffalo, Buffalo, NY

Responsibilities:

- Developed and implemented corrective procedures to alleviate group dysfunctions.
- Conferred with team member and groups to determine nature of group dysfunction.
- Observed group interaction and interviewed group members to identify problems related to factors such as group organization, authority relationships, and role conflicts.
- Developed approaches to solution of group's problems, based on findings and incorporated sociological research and study in related disciplines.
- Handled and facilitated group interaction and role affiliations.
- Evaluated progress and project pending reports thoroughly to determine need for additional change.

Clinical Social Worker May 2004 – December 2006
UPMC, Pittsburgh, PA

Responsibilities:

- Served as a member of the treatment team, working with other disciplines in diagnosing problems, formulating treatment plans, and evaluating progress.
- Provided necessary social work treatment in accordance with medical treatment plans and modified these plans to further therapeutic goals.
- Prepared socio-psychiatric case history information, psychosocial assessment, and social work treatment plans, for use in pre-admission screening and diagnosis.
- Arranged for placement of residents in suitable homes; assisted in their continuing adjustment in the community; evaluated their need for further care.
- Interpreted the social aspects of mental disturbances to relatives, interested persons, and community agencies.

Legal Aid Worker February 1999 – May 2004
Foster McKay, New York, New York

Responsibilities:

- Developed and implemented corrective procedures to alleviate group dysfunctions.
- Conferred with team member and groups to determine nature of group dysfunction.
- Observed group interaction and interviewed group members to identify problems related to factors such as group organization, authority relationships, and role conflicts.
- Developed approaches to solution of group's problems, based on findings and incorporated sociological research and study in related disciplines.
- Handled and facilitated group interaction and role affiliations.
- Evaluated progress and project pending reports thoroughly to determine need for additional change.

Clinical Social Worker May 2004 – December 2006
UPMC, Pittsburgh, PA

Education:

Master of Arts in Sociology, Stanford University, CA, 1999
Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, Stanford University, CA, 1997

Skills:

- Good communication skills, both written and verbal
- A creative approach to new campaigns
- Good negotiating and interpersonal skills

- Strong organizational and psychological skills
- Computer literate

Awards and Honors:

Certification The American Sociological Association, 2000
Dean's Lister, Stanford University, 1997

Build your Resume Now